I have a stallion by him out of a Messenger mare, three and a half years old, which can be bought for a nominal sum. He is 15½ hands high, weighs 1,000 pounds, and shows a good gait, and with a little handling would go very fast. He, when a few weeks old, struck an eye on a fence-rail, ruining the sight, but never affecting the other eye. The animal was so superior there was urgency by gentlemen to keep him for breeding purposes. He is therefore offered for $150, as I am not situated for using him.
